

ORLANDO BUSINESS JOURNAL

Mar 27, 2013, 10:07am EDT

How your business can get a slice of the Ultimate I-4 Project

Bill Orben

Associate Managing Editor- Orlando Business Journal

The Florida Department of Transportation will host a series of meetings for small businesses in May on how they can get work on the $2.1 billion rebuilding of Interstate 4 known as the Ultimate I-4 Project.

Dates for the meetings have not been set. FDOT plans to host the meetings with firms seeking to rebuild the 21 miles of interstate from Kirkman Road to State Road 434.

The state has consultants working with small businesses to get work on FDOT projects.

For more information on the FDOT's programs for small businesses, contact Arthur E. Wright, manager of FDOT's equal opportunity office, at Arthur.Wright@dot.state.fl.us.

Firms seeking to bid on the project have until April 19 to submit their proposals, and the field of firms will be narrowed by May 10.