Westbound I-4 From Lee Road to Fairbanks Avenue Shifting to Temporary Configuration

Westbound I-4 Exit Ramp to Fairbanks Ave. to Close Jan. 24-29

Orlando, Fla. – Westbound Interstate 4 (I-4) between Lee Road (State Road 423) and Fairbanks Avenue is shifting into a new temporary configuration as soon as Friday, January 24, to allow crews to safely construct the permanent westbound I-4 lanes.

To accommodate the traffic shift, westbound I-4 ramps at the Lee Road and Fairbanks Road interchanges will be closed continuously for multiple days:

- The westbound I-4 entrance ramp from Lee Road will close as early as 10 p.m. Friday, January 24, and reopen by 5 a.m. Monday, January 27.
- The westbound I-4 exit ramp to Fairbanks Avenue will close as early as 10 p.m. Friday, January 24, and reopen by 5 a.m. Wednesday, January 29.

Motorists should expect multiple lane closures on westbound I-4 from the night of January 24 until the afternoon of January 25. Drivers are advised to maintain a safe speed when driving through the work zone. Sign up for construction updates and alerts at I4Ultimate.com.

For more information about the westbound I-4 traffic shift or the detour routes for the closures of westbound I-4 on-ramp from Lee Road and the westbound I-4 exit ramp to Fairbanks Avenue, please download or view the attached handout.

Modifications or extensions to these schedules may become necessary due to weather delays or other unforeseen conditions.
